Reid Opponent Picked

Special to The New York Times

WHITE PLAINS, May 16 — Paul Davidoff of Larchmont, a professional planner and director of the graduate program of urban planning at Hunter College, was designated by Westchester County Democratic leaders today as their candidate for Congress in the 26th Congressional District. If nominated in the June primary, he would run against representative Ogden Reid of Purchase in November. Max Berking of Ryè had been endorsed, but declined to run.
